price (as defined in section sixty-seven) of the goods is less than such price expressed in the currency of the territory of origin or export of the goods and converted into the currency of the Republic at a rate which the Minister is hereby authorized to determine and to notify by means of an amendment of Schedule No. 2 which shall be effected by notice in the Gazette; or

- (e) “sales anti-dumping duty”, which may be imposed when goods are being or are likely to be sold or offered for sale at a place in the Republic in the ordinary course of trade in wholesale quantities for an amount which is less than the domestic value (as defined in section sixty-six) thereof plus freight, insurance and all charges to that place, including landing, transportation and delivery charges and any duty (other than an anti-dumping duty imposed under the provisions of this Chapter) payable under this Act, and which shall be the amount by which the said domestic value of the goods, plus the expenses and charges set forth in this paragraph, exceeds the wholesale selling price in the Republic.
- (6) The anti-dumping duties mentioned in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of sub-section (5) shall be paid by the importer of the goods at the time of entry for home consumption of such goods and the anti-dumping duty mentioned in paragraph (e) of sub-section (5) shall be paid by the person in the Republic who sells the goods, in the manner and at the time prescribed in the regulations.

 - (b) within seven days of the date on which the proposal was tabled, deliver to the Controller a sworn statement giving separately the description and quantities of the said imported and excisable goods, which were in his stocks at the said time, and any other information which the Secretary may require of him; and
 - (c) upon or before the last working day of the month following the month in which the proposal was tabled, pay to the Controller the amount of duty payable by him under sub-section (2) in respect of the goods in question.
- (5) If the Minister specifies in any taxation proposal for the purposes of sub-section (2) that any goods so specified shall be liable to the duties so specified if they have not been delivered from the stocks of a wholesale dealer at the time of the said proposal, the provisions of sub-section (4) shall apply to the stocks of such wholesale dealer and of any retail dealer conducting his business on the same premises: Provided that the Secretary may, upon production by such wholesale dealer of such evidence as he may require, exclude from the stocks or the liability for duty of that wholesale dealer for the purposes of sub-section (2)—
 - (a) stocks of a class or kind which are sold, by such retail dealer only; and

 - (d) “deliver” includes any form of delivery except traditio brevi manu and constitutum possessorium.

- (7) Whenever in any legal proceedings any question arises as to whether the Minister has in fact tabled a taxation proposal as described in this section, or as to the time when such proposal was tabled or the particulars contained in such proposal, a copy of the minutes of proceedings of the House of Assembly, containing such proposal and certified by the Secretary of the House of Assembly to be a true copy, shall be accepted as sufficient evidence that such proposal was tabled and of the time when it was tabled and of the particulars contained therein.

59. Contract prices may be varied to extent of alteration in duty

- (1) Whenever any duty is imposed or increased, directly or indirectly, by amendment in any manner of any Schedule to this Act, on any goods and such goods, in pursuance of a contract made before such duty or increased duty became payable, are thereafter delivered to and accepted by the purchaser, the seller of the goods may, in the absence of agreement to the contrary, recover as an addition to the contract price a sum equal to any amount paid by him by reason of the said duty or increase.
- (2) Whenever any duty is withdrawn or decreased, directly or indirectly, by amendment in any manner of any Schedule to this Act, on any goods, and such goods in pursuance of a contract made before the withdrawal or decrease became effective are thereafter delivered to the purchaser, the purchaser of the goods may, in the absence of agreement to the contrary, if the seller has in respect of those goods had the benefit of the withdrawal or decrease, deduct from the contract price a sum equal to the said duty or decrease.
- (3) The provisions of this section shall also apply to a contract for the hiring of any goods or the use of any goods in rendering a service at a contract price, and the expressions "seller" and "purchaser" shall correspondingly be construed as including the person by whom and the person to whom the goods are hired or the service rendered.

Chapter IX Value

65. Value for customs duty purposes

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the value for duty purposes of any imported goods shall be the domestic value or the free on board price thereof, whichever is the greater.
- (2) For the purposes of this section and of sub-sections (3) and (4) of section seventy, such abnormal costs in effecting shipment as are proved to the satisfaction of the Secretary to have been incurred as the result of a state of war, strikes, lock-outs, riots or civil commotions shall not be regarded as forming part of the domestic value or the free on board price of goods.
- (3) If the value of any imported goods of a single denomination according to the provisions of this section is in excess of twenty rand such value shall for the purpose of assessing the amount of duty payable, be calculated to the nearest rand, an amount of fifty cents being regarded as less than one half of one rand.
- (4) Whenever it is necessary for the Secretary to determine a value or price under the provisions of section sixty-six or sixty-seven in respect of any goods, he may, in such circumstances as he deems expedient, at the request of the importer, determine an estimated value or price in respect of such goods according to information available at the time of importation thereof and such estimated value or price shall, unless it is rejected by the importer, thereafter be regarded as the domestic value or free on board price, as the case may be, of those goods for the purposes of the relevant sections.

66. Definition of domestic value

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the domestic value of any goods imported into the Republic shall be the market price at which, at the time of purchase by the importer of such goods, such or similar goods are freely offered for sale, for consumption in the territory from which such exportation takes place, in the usual wholesale quantities in the ordinary course of trade to all purchasers in the principal markets of that territory, including any royalty, and the cost of packages ordinarily used in those markets, plus the extra cost of packing and packages for export, carriage to the port of shipment or other place of final despatch in that territory, and all other expenses incidental to placing the goods on board ship or on any vehicle at that port or place, ready for export to the Republic but shall not include excise duties or sales taxes imposed or drawbacks, refunds, rebates or remissions of customs duty granted on export of such goods by the government of that territory: Provided that if any goods are exported to the Republic from a territory other than the territory in which such goods were produced or manufactured, the Secretary may, for the purpose of this section, regard the territory in which such goods were produced or manufactured as the territory from which such exportation to the Republic takes place.

- (2) When goods are sold in the territory from which they are exported to the Republic or from which they are, in terms of the proviso to sub-section (1) regarded as being so exported, under such conditions that no domestic value thereof can be calculated in terms of sub-section (1), or when goods exported to the Republic are not sold for consumption in the territory from which they are so exported or regarded as being exported or when the domestic value calculated in terms of sub-section (1) is below the ordinary market price at which such or similar goods have been sold in such territory during the six months preceding the date of exportation to the Republic, the Secretary may determine a value which shall, subject to the right of appeal to the Minister, be regarded as the domestic value of those goods.

67. Free on board price

Subject to the provisions of this Act, the free on board price of any imported goods shall be the price charged in respect of such goods by the exporter plus all the costs and charges incidental to the sale in question and to placing such goods on board ship or on any vehicle ready for exportation and any agent's commission (calculated on such price, costs and charges) in respect of such goods: Provided that if in the opinion of the Secretary the free on board price charged in respect of any goods is not the normal free on board price at which such or similar goods would be sold by the exporter to any importer in the Republic under fully competitive conditions at the time of purchase of such goods, or if no charge is made in respect of such goods, the Secretary may determine a price which shall, subject to the right of appeal of the Minister, be regarded as the free on board price of those goods.

68. Certificate of domestic value or charges

In the event of any question arising as to the correctness of any certificate of domestic value given or any statement of bounty, drawback, duty, royalty or any other charge or amount paid or to be paid, made by the manufacturer or supplier in the territory of export, or of any statement of freight charges paid or to be paid, made by the shipper or other consignor or his agent in the country of shipment, in respect of any goods imported into the Republic, a written certificate signed by a person in that territory specially designated by the Minister, certifying such value, bounty, drawback, duty, royalty, freight or other charge or amount may, for assessing the amount of duty or any other matters incidental thereto, be accepted by the Secretary as conclusive evidence of such value, bounty, drawback, duty, royalty, freight or other charge or amount, as the case may be, but subject to the right of appeal to the Minister whose decision shall be final.

69. Value for excise duty purposes

- (1) Whenever it is necessary, for the purpose of assessing the excise duty payable on any goods manufactured in the Republic, to determine the value of such goods, the value thereof shall, subject to the provisions of this section, be taken to be the market price (before deduction of any discounts) at which, at the time of sale, such or similar goods are freely offered for sale, for consumption in the Republic, for purposes of trade in the principal markets of the Republic in the ordinary course of trade, in the usual wholesale quantities and in the condition and the usual packing ready for sale in the retail trade, plus the cost of packing and packages and all other expenses incidental to placing the goods on rail for delivery to the purchaser, but excluding the excise duty on such goods.
- (2) Whenever any such goods are sold or otherwise disposed of in the Republic under such conditions that the value thereof, cannot be calculated in terms of sub-section (1), the Secretary may determine a value which shall, subject to the right of appeal to the Minister, be regarded as the value of such goods determined in terms of sub-section (1).
- (3) The Secretary may, in respect of any such goods or any class or kind of such goods—
 - (a) specify, for the purposes of sub-section (1), the quantity which shall be deemed to be the usual wholesale quantity;
 - (b) specify, for the purposes of sub-section (1), the packing which shall be deemed to be the usual packing ready for sale in the retail trade;

- (c) determine, for the purposes of sub-section (1), the cost of packing or packages or any other expenses incidental to placing the goods on rail, and his decision shall, subject to the right of appeal to the Minister, be final.

70. Secretary may require valuation

- (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Chapter, the Secretary may, if he is not satisfied as to the correctness of the value for duty or tariff classification purposes of any imported or excisable goods declared by the importer or the manufacturer, as the case may be, require such importer or manufacturer to declare before him on oath to the truth of such declaration, according to the best knowledge and belief of the said importer or manufacturer and to adduce any documentary evidence he may possess in support thereof, and the Controller is hereby authorized to administer such oath: Provided that if it appears to the Controller (whether or not such oath has been required) that the goods have been declared at a value below the correct value thereof for purpose of duty or tariff classification under the provisions of any Schedule to this Act, he may require the goods to be examined by two competent persons, one to be nominated by the Secretary and the other by the importer or manufacturer.
- (2) The two persons referred to in sub-section (1) shall, before entering upon any enquiry, appoint an umpire, and shall declare on oath before the Controller what is to the best of their knowledge and belief the correct value of the goods for duty or tariff classification purposes, and if those persons do not agree, the umpire shall declare on oath before the Controller what is to the best of his knowledge and belief the said value.
- (3) If the two persons nominated in terms of sub-section (1) declare the same value, that value, or otherwise the value declared by the umpire shall be the value of the goods for duty or tariff classification purposes, provided, in the case of imported goods, such value is not less than the actual free on board price of the said goods or, in the case of excisable goods, such value is not less than the actual free on rail price of the said goods charged by the manufacturer.
- (4) If an importer or manufacturer, after he has been required by the Controller to make an appointment in terms of sub-section (1), fails to do so within three days, or if no declaration is made by the person appointed by the importer or manufacturer within three days of his appointment, the value declared by the person appointed by the Secretary shall be the value of the goods for duty or tariff classification purposes, provided, in the case of imported goods, such value is not less than the actual free on board price of the said goods or, in the case of excisable goods, such value is not less than the actual free on rail price of the said goods charged by the manufacturer.

- (2) Where any used motor vehicle is imported or where any new motor vehicle is imported by a natural person for his own use and not for sale, the Secretary may determine the value for duty purposes of such vehicle and his determination shall be final: Provided that where any natural person who was the owner of and has used such motor vehicle in any territory outside the Republic, imports such vehicle into the Republic, from a territory other than the territory in which it was produced or manufactured, for his own use, and not for sale, the Secretary may determine the value for duty purposes of such vehicle as if it were imported into the Republic from the territory in which it was produced or manufactured: Provided further that no period of use of any such motor vehicle, outside the Republic, while in the possession of any person normally resident in the Republic, which is less than six months shall be taken into consideration in determining such value.
